

Disclosure of Compensation

Alberta Museums Association
Board of Directors

Members of the Alberta Museums Association Board of Directors are not entitled to receive, either directly or indirectly, any salary, wages, fees, commissions, or other amount for services rendered to the AMA in their capacity as a director.

On occasion, board members may be paid for products or services they provide to the AMA in another role, for example as an instructor for a course in the Certificate in Museums Studies Program. For the 2022-2023 fiscal no compensation was received by AMA board members, or companies in which a board member is an owner, partner, or senior manager, for any products or services provided to the AMA in the last twelve months. All board members are required to disclose these payments and their purpose at the beginning of each board meeting.
